

July 13th, 2017

Dear Friends,

Me, Denys Smakovskyi Secretary FECC Ukraine together with Vasyl Chistikov, General Deputy FECC Ukraine and our fellows FECC Members – Valentyna Smakovska, Svetlana Kyrychek and Volodymyr Gerasymchuk, we are glad to invite you for the 2017th Dies Natalis FECC taking place in Dnipro, Ukraine between the 29th September and 2nd October 2017.

This Dies Natalis offers a great opportunity to meet with the representatives of carnival organizations worldwide in order to discuss how to enrich carnival all over the globe.

Also we offer you great opportunity to discover the diversity and deep historical roots of Ukraine, its culture and traditions. Our people are open for worldwide experience and ready to take active part in development of carnival movement all over the world.

During this Dies Natalis you will be able to visit cultural and historical places around Dnipro, participate in cultural events, concerts, excursions, boat trips and much more. Also we will be able to recommend you additional days in our capital Kyiv and other cultural centers of Ukraine.

Attached please find our official program for the 2017th Dies Natalis FECC together with the registration form. We are working hard to guarantee that every person attending the Dies Natalis will get the best service ever and on leaving our mighty Dnipro, you will take with you some unique memories to treasure.

We are looking forward to welcome and meet you in Dnipro, Ukraine, this autumn.

Best regards,

Secretary FECC Ukraine
Denys Smakovskyi